
Choosing Mathematics Courses Years 11 and 12

Mathematics is not compulsory at stage 6 but it is generally seen as an important requirement for most vocations and further education. The course you choose should be based on interests, demonstrated abilities and the value of courses for future career plans.